Letteratura di un Amore - Anita Marin 2014

Anita e Bruno si conoscono ed e' coupe de foudre. Lei e' ancora minorenne, la sua famiglia facoltosa si oppone con tutte le forze alla relazione. Negli anni della comunicazione di carta, del fascismo, delle epurazioni post mussoliniane Bruno resta saldo come una roccia. Un amore d'altri tempi che riesce a vincere ogni avversita', un involontario saggio lungo oltre vent'anni di storia d'Italia.

L'egoismo è buono! Principi di sano egoismo - Christian Bernard 2018-08-25

Inizialmente, l'egoismo era definito come la capacità di agire in accordo con la voce della ragione e negli interessi personali. Ma questo concetto sembrava essere dimenticato e bloccato da un altro. È difficile definirlo un errore accidentale, è più una deliberata distorsione dei fatti, solo gli altruisti ne traggono beneficio.

Radical People's Theatre - Eugène Van Erven 1988

Religious Life Or Secular Institute - Jean Beyer 1970

Many request have been made for the publication of these studies in book form. Much of this material has already appeared as articles in The Way. In the first section I discuss the distinction between the forms of consecrated life, following a classification which is also taken up by the Second Vatican Council in its decree Perfectae Caritatis. It is by distinguishing between these different ways of the Spirit, and by seeking to enter more deeply into them, that all who lead that life - whether they be monks or nuns, or religious dedicated to the apostolate of the priestly ministry or of charitable works, or those leading a consecrated life in the midst of the world - will gain a better understanding of their vocation and of their special mission in the Church. The second study is an attempt to express the profound meaning of the secular vocation proper to those institutes which were approved by Pope Pius XII in 1947, and of which the Motu Proprio Primo Feliciter laid down the essential characteristics. The third section is a discussion of the role of the priest in approved Secular Institutes. This has relevance today, when special questions arise concerning those Institutes whose secular character is less apparent, who live in community and are occupied in their own special works. In the opinion of many who follow the fully secular vocation, those Institutes would do better to revise their statutes or to choose another denomination - for example, that of Apostolic Institute or Society. *Frutti dell'albero della vita ovvero Lezioni morali date da Maria santissima alla ven. suor Maria di Gesù di Agreda ed ora estratte dalla Mistica città di Dio e nuovamente tradotte dal p. Interculturality in Institutions - Marilena Fatigante 2023-01-21

This book provides qualitative analyses of intercultural sense making in a variety of institutional contexts. It relies on the assumption that in an increasingly culturally diverse world, individuals often enter contexts that have communal, historically determined and stable sets of values, norms and expected identities, with little cultural compass to find their bearings in them. The book goes beyond interpreting differences in people's ethnic or linguistic roots and discusses instead people's interpretive efforts to navigate different sociocultural situations. The contributors examine such situations in educational, organizational, medical and community settings and look at how participants with different levels of sociocultural competences (such as, migrant patients, migrant adult learners, children) try to cope with institutional constraints and expectations, how they understand symbols, practices and identities in institutional contexts, and how their creative adjustments come to light. This book provides insights from the fields of psychology, education, anthropology and linguistics, and is for a wide readership interested in cultural meaning-making.

The Medici Bank - Prof. Raymond de Roover 2017-07-31

Professor Raymond de Roover received his MBA from Harvard University in June 1938, and it was during that summer that he, together with his wife, Florence Edler, an American scholar studying European economic history, photographed the records that would form the basis for this Medici Bank study. First published in 1948, this publication examines the structural organization and eventual fall of the Medici Bank, the largest and most respected bank in Europe during its prime in the 15th century (1397-1494). The book includes in-depth chapters covering the Florentine banking system; the structure of the Medici firm; the central administration and the branches; the management of the branches; the management of the industrial establishments in Florence; banking and exchange transactions; commercial transactions; the alum cartel; the sources of invested funds; and, finally, the causes of the decline. An important addition to the historical analysis of banking during the formative period of modern institutions.
