The Aston Martin Book - Rene Staud 2022-09-15 - Refueled and ready to go: a completely revised and perfected new edition of the bestseller with unpublished studio photographs and updated texts- To mark the 110th anniversary of the automobile manufacturer and its rich tradition- Builds on the successful original edition (10,000 copies sold) and René Staud's other automotive publications at teNeues- As James Bond's vehicle, Aston Martin is firmly entrenched in pop culture One icon meets another: For true automotive enthusiasts, it was no surprise that the paths of Aston Martin and René Staud would cross at some point. The British brand's meteoric success story began almost exactly 110 years ago. Its claim of building road-ready racing cars has always remained intact. Legendary victories at Le Mans or the Nürburgring, for example, contributed to Aston Martin's appeal, as did the fact that Her Majesty's secret agent, James Bond, drove the elegant, British-built DB5 as early as 1964. In this new edition of the best-selling book, multiple award-winning automotive photographer René Staud presents breathtaking new photographs of both old and present-day models -- even those knowledgeable about the brand will discover stories not yet heard. Text in English and German.

Queer in Translation - B.J. Epstein 2017-01-06 As the field of translation studies has developed, translators and translation scholars have become more aware of the unacknowledged ideologies inherent both in texts themselves and in the mechanisms that affect their circulation. This book both analyses the translation of queerness and applies queer thought to issues of translation. It sheds light on the manner in which heteronormative societies influence the selection, reading and translation of texts and pays attention to the means by which such heterosexism might be subverted. It considers the ways in which queerness can be repressed, ignored or made invisible in translation, and shows how translations might expose or underline the queerness - or the homophobic implications - of a given text. Balancing the theoretical with the practical, this book investigates what is culturally at stake when particular texts are translated from one culture to another, raising the question of the relationship between translation, colonialism and globalization. It also takes the insights derived from intercultural translation studies and applies them to other fields of cultural criticism. The first multi-focus, in-depth study on translating queer, translating queerly and queering translation, this book will be of interest to scholars working in the fields of gender and sexuality, queer theory and queer studies, literature, film studies and translation studies.

Pedaling with a Purpose - Rev Johannes Myors

Story and travels of Rev Johannes Myors. Since Feb 19, 1993, Rev Myors has cycled almost 265,000 miles in Canada and the United States. In 72 missionary bike tours, Rev Myors has performed evangelism, spoken at almost 1,100 churches, performed roadside counseling, helped after natural disasters, helped build homes with Habitat for Humanity and the Fuller Center for Housing, and promoted compassionate social action. With every revolution of his bike wheels, a prayer went up to Heaven. Rev Myors was born in Bavaria, Germany to parents who were Holocaust survivors. After spending 18 months in yeshiva training to be a rabbi, he dropped out. In December, 1975 during Hanukkah, Rev Myors bought an English New Testament and became a Jewish believer in Jesus. During Passover 1976, his family banished him and declared him dead. In 1979 after spending a year as an elementary school teacher, Johannes immigrated to the United States and became a naturalized citizen in 1984 while working at a college in Florida. In 1998, Johannes was ordained an Evangelical Christian minister.

Agriculture, Conservation and Land Use - William Howarth 1992

Information on some 800 products--pesticides, herbicides, insecticides, fungicides, plant growth regulators, animal repellents, nematicides, soil penetrants, seed treatments, composting aids, micronutrients, and speciality fertilizers. All of the products listed are currently available. No bibliography. Compiled by the Centre for Law in Rural Areas, based in Aberystwyth, Wales, nine essays explore legal and political issues involved in promoting conservation in the countryside in a manner consistent with modern farming techniques. The impetus is concern over rural mid- Wales, but the perspective of the essays is British and European. Among the topics are agricultural diversification, pollution, the organization of conservation authorities, common land, and sites needing special protection.
